

How is the learning structured?

Learning happens through a combination of classroom sessions, practical workshops, live event exposure, simulations, and real-world assignments.

Will students get exposure to real events?

Yes. Students participate in live events, on-ground executions, rehearsals, and industry projects as part of the curriculum.

Are internships included in the program?

Yes. Internships are an integral part of the program to ensure students gain real industry experience before completing the course.